

There's Never Been a More Exciting Time to be at Sanborn Head

BY: BARRET COLE, PG, LEP ON OCTOBER 6, 2019

We've got a lot of great things going on and lots to look forward to. In 2018, we celebrated our 25th anniversary and kicked off a new strategic planning cycle – with the three themes of Expand, Engage, and Lead.

Since that time, our staff has grown to 120 employees (our largest size ever), we've opened offices in Burlington, Denver, and Philadelphia, and our Boston office is growing into new space. We've earned best-in-class employee engagement scores and have just been recognized as a Best Company to Work for by Business NH Magazine. We're working on a variety of challenging projects above and below ground and continue to be on the leading edge of developments in all of our practice areas. We're excited to be working together and working together with our clients.

We're also excited to welcome you to our updated website! Sanbornhead.com has a new look, improved functionality, and fresh material. We're especially proud to be including all 120 of our staff members on the site, because it's our people who really make and define us. Our website includes new content and a contemporary design that we believe reflects the great work that we do and the great energy in our workplace.

At heart, we're still the same company committed to helping our clients achieve success and to helping each other succeed.

When we embarked on this project several months ago, we started with a discovery process to confirm our understanding about Who We Are, What We Do, How We Work—ultimately cutting to the essence of Why We Exist. We found the process of collecting input from our clients, staff, and markets to be highly energizing while also providing validation to our core beliefs. I am pleased to report that the Sanborn Head brand resonates as strong as ever with our constituents; in fact, it is so compelling that it has emboldened us to portray ourselves with a new sense of confident humility. We've got a great story to tell about our company, and we've let this great content drive the design of the refreshed website.

We invite you to take a look around our new website and sign up for our newsletter so we can keep you informed about news and insights at Sanborn Head. We trust you'll find the same great company that you have come to rely on with a new look and a new spring in our step.
